

Juneteenth Celebration
& New Exhibit Opening:
"A Call to Serve: Vermont and Unexpected Voices from the Civil War"
Monday, June 19th 2023 - 1 PM to 3 PM

This exhibit on the Civil War opens on Juneteenth at the Old Stone House Museum & Historic Village. It will feature a unique set of artifacts showcasing the contributions of Vermonters to preserving the Union amidst the nation's deadliest conflict. In the process, it celebrates the impact of African Americans, Native Americans, Canadians, and women on Civil War history, telling stories of their contributions that often remain unheard.

This event is free and will include refreshments and a partial museum open house.
